MEMBER SHOW: Run River The geographic and historical significance of our own Hudson River has served as inspiration, transportation and sustenance for people throughout history. How do you experience the flow of your own personal waterways? Share what the River means to you and your art.		MEMBER SHOW: Figuratively Speaking Can you figure it out? As an artist, what are you trying to say, figuratively speaking? Or from a classical point of view, maybe it's working with the figure. However you look at it, we're talking about art. Go figure...		MEMBER SHOW: Women's History Month Celebrate and commemorate the amazing contributions made by women - in the past and in contemporary society. Through your artwork, express the inner goddess, the future female. Who do you admire?
